Bring Your Dog for Behavior Modification / Training

This class is a unique opportunity to receive an evaluation, treatment plan and coaching experience with your dog, who attends one week. The approach is holistic, with positive reinforcement techniques tailored to each individual dog and situation. The other weeks you learn about dog behavior and help other owners with their dogs. This is a valuable educational experience for pet parents, pet professionals, and rescue volunteers. Improve your dog's behavior in a calm supportive group environment specifically designed for human and canine education. Most dogs and most issues accepted.

THE MISHA MAY FOUNDATION

In order to create a No-Kill society in which abandonment, homelessness and euthanasia of dogs does not exist, The Misha May Foundation rescues, rehabilitates and finds forever homes for dogs at risk regardless of age or breed, issue or amount of time needed, in conjunction with providing educational services to the community.

We believe that each individual dog deserves the opportunity to find a forever home.

We provide structure, training, and support for rescue volunteers and the community at large.
